

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, by Act of Congress, Army Day is observed each year on April 6, and this year marks its fifteenth anniversary; and

WHEREAS, the day is celebrated by veterans and military organizations to impress upon the people the need for preparedness in the prosecution of war.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harlan J. Bushfield, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 6, 1942, as and I urge the military units in the state of South Dakota to cooperate with veterans organizations and civic bodies, as far as may be practicable, in the appropriate observance of this day. I also urge the citizens of the State of South Dakota to honor the Army on this day with a display of the American Flag at their places of business and at their homes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Pierre, this sixteenth day of March, 1942.
